Bill Fitch wanted to put some time on the Peitenpol and feel the air rushing past him. So off he went. From Freedom Field southeast of Dubuque to Dyersville International! A grueling flight it was but Bill handled it.

Don Mensen was in and out over the weekend visiting family.

Steve Rezabek and his father were out enjoying the good weather and dropped in to see the airport. Steve is from Cedar Rapids. His father gave up his medical but still makes one heck of a co-pilot.

Aviation 101

Good judgment comes from experience and experience comes from bad judgment.

Learn from the mistakes of others. You won't live long enough to make all of them yourself.

Model Airplane Show Still Growing

Jerry Kramer is the Master of Ceremony

Lauren Kramer and Casey McCarrahar sing the National Anthem

Dyersville Legion presents the Colors as a Sky Raider does a low pass

The Hangar offered shade for some and others preferred the outdoors

Tym Theisen shows his skills by "standing his plane on its tail"

While flying his Jet models, Larry Kramer has his sister act as spotter so the plane will not get lost. His jets fly up to 200 miles an hour.

Owner and pilot, Chris Lord of Galena, IL flew his gyrocopter in for the show.

This fellow knows how important it is to stay hydrated watching the show.

Excitement every minute

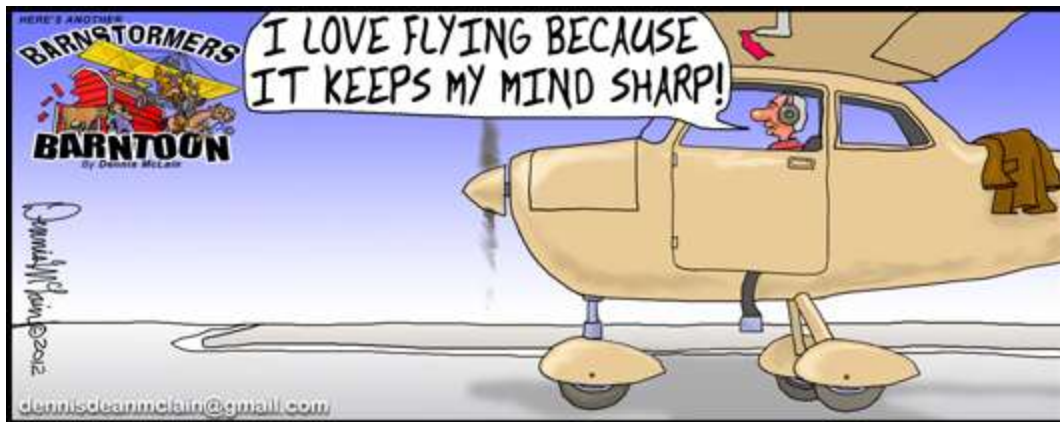

The four hour show ended but many people stayed to look at the planes, ask the pilots questions and encourage many pilots to fly "one more time".
