Second trip to Field of Dreams

Jason Noll flew in from the Chicago area again. This time he brought Kristin McGuinness of Wheaton, IL to see the Field of Dreams..

This Carbon Cub landed the other day and out jumped Steve Bradley of Cascade and Jim Hill from Manchester. They were doing a little "tail dragger" practice. After a few full stops they parked the plane and came in to some hangar talk.

Visitors from South Carolina

Craig Kramer took Brady, Alexa and Madi Kramer for a ride in the 172. They are the children of Matt Kramer. The reason this is so interesting is shown on the next picture.

The Cessna has never been cleaned by someone in formal wear.

Now that the vacation time is about over, we are looking forward to seeing the “cover crop” planes come in and spread the seeds for the ag community.

Kids are in school and it is time to take a little vacation with the MRS.

Dyersville hosted the Dubuque EAA Meeting – Busy day at the airport

Lyle Hefel, who has built several airplanes was asked many questions. Comments about Oshkosh were encouraged, 503 (C) 3 tax exemptions were discussed and the up coming Antique airplane convention in Broadhead, WI was discussed. All in all, the food was very good and the conversation matched the food.
